

Friday Focus

01/27/2012

What a fantastic Spelling Bee this past Thursday. Miss Longnecker did a great job of coordinating this activity. Our participants did a fantastic job of representing their fellow classmates. I know that our two winners will represent Monroe Central well when they continue on to the next level.

I am going to thank all of you ahead of time for being flexible as the new copiers are being installed. I'm sure that you will be happy when the training is over and you can use all of the features that are available on the copiers.

The weekly "Bear Coupon" drawings are a success. I had one teacher state, "I will admit that I am surprised at how much the noon drawings mean to the students. I have students in my class stepping up to the plate and doing things for me (that earn a coupon) they never did before. Good idea!"

A visitor recently said, "When I walked into this school building, I knew good things were happening." Good things are happening at Monroe Central Elementary and I'm glad those who visit can sense that. Another parent stated last Friday, "My wife and I just love this school." Keep up the good work!!!!!!
